We are so grateful to have the opportunity to work with amazing guest choreographers!

Guest Choreographers:

Megan Alyse Finley

Megan brings with her 15 years of choreography, teaching and adjudicating experience. Her extensive knowledge of both Cecchetti and Vaganova ballet techniques, classical voice, tap, jazz, contemporary and modern have given her a wide range of life experiences. After choosing to expand her education at Ball State University with degrees in Musical Theatre Performance & Dance, Megan held several lead roles and dance captain positions throughout the US. Megan continues her career as an award winning choreographer in the dance industry, all while traveling throughout the country as a master class teacher. It is this same love and passion for the performing arts which lead to the creation of her studio, Captivation Dance Affiliates (www.captivationdance.com).

Katie Egan Rotio

Katie is a native of Melrose, Massachusetts, where she began her dance studies at Thistle Academy and studied a broad mix of styles ranging from ballet and pointe to hip hop, jazz and tap. Katie received a BA in Dance from Connecticut College where she danced with and learned from David Dorfman, Lisa Race, Eddie Taketa, Heidi Henderson and Dan Wagoner. In 2012, Katie co-founded Cambridge Dance Company and served as Artistic Director for one year before moving to St. Louis, Missouri where she performed with and choreographed for Leverage Dance Theater. She is self-employed as a graphic designer and paper artist. Katie is currently living in New Jersey with her husband and dog, and is thrilled to have been invited back to Boston to set a new piece on the company!

Melissa A. Webster

Melissa began her love for dance and teaching north of Boston where she now teaches numerous hip hop, lyrical, tap, and jazz classes. Her choreography has been performed and featured all over the New England area. Melissa also has enjoyed the opportunity to teach with various outreach programs in the inner city. Melissa's passion for dance has inspired her students to dance after high school both recreationally and professionally.

We are thrilled and honored to share the stage with our guest performer!

Convivium Musicum

Founded and run by its singers, Convivium Musicum is a Renaissance vocal ensemble, dedicated to concerts of uplifting beauty since 1987. Over nearly three decades they have offered rarely-heard gems alongside stirring masterworks, and have collaborated with the Boston Camerata, the Boston Youth Symphony Orchestras, The Cape Cod Symphony Orchestra, and the Viola da Gamba Society of New England. Under Music Director Michael Barrett, their programs are informed by careful research and scholarship, and their performances are devoted to bringing to life the complex and profound emotional texture of this repertoire.

A group of women in black leotards are arranged in a human pyramid formation. They are all looking upwards with their hands raised, reaching towards the top of a large, light-colored triangular backdrop that dominates the background. The women are positioned in a way that creates a sense of height and unity. The overall color palette is warm, with shades of pink, orange, and brown.
